Common Concerns About Toddlers and Preschoolers

DATE: January 26, 2010

TIME: 7:00-8:30

LOCATION: Stepping Stones

Kathleen will address some of the most commonly asked questions about behavior in children ages 1-5. Tantrums, power struggles, picky eaters and more.

Common Concerns about School Age Kids

DATE: February 23, 2010

TIME: 7:00-8:00

LOCATION: Stepping Stones

Here we will discuss some of the most commonly asked questions about kids ages 5-10. Including defiance, homework and school issues.

A Positive Approach to Negative Behavior

DATE: March 9, 2010

TIME: 7:00-8:30

LOCATION: Stepping Stones

Back by popular demand! Make parenting enjoyable! No more lectures, no more shouting- learn to look at negative behavior with empathy, understanding and humor. Seeing the communication in a child's negative behavior helps you to respond in a more positive and effective manner.

Teachers as Co-Parents, A New Phenomenon

DATE: March 30, 2010

TIME: 7:00-8:30

LOCATION: Stepping Stones

Working families and extended school days mean your students are with you for a significant part of their lives. You are involved not just in the education but the raising of your students. Discuss this phenomenon and gain some ideas about working with parents for the success of the child.

Teachers and parents,

You are invited to join us for our fall workshop series designed especially for the needs and challenges you face on a daily basis. Workshops are kept small so there is plenty of time for questions and individual problem solving.

Cost is $20.00 per workshop. Register for 2 or more workshops and save $5 per workshop!

Register now-
space is limited!
